Summary: A revision of Stardust Angels. While testing a new Battle System, three pilots are mistakenly sent to the Cosmic Era before the space colony Heliopolis was destroyed. Now these three join the crew of the Archangel in the battle against ZAFT with their own custom Gundams but they're not the only ones that were sent to this new world.

Gundam SEED: Stardust Angels Reborn

What's up, everyone! This is GKC here bringing you a special announcement, I'm officially bringing back a revised Stardust Angels with all new Gundams but with different characters as well. This will also mark the return of the Angel, Stardust, and Cosmic but with entirely new frames as well.

The trailer song for this was a tough one but if any of you are Gundam fans then go on YouTube and look up the new Gundam Extreme Vs game opening. I believe its called 'No Future' by The Beautiful People. It was originally going to be the Maxi Boost song but the Maxi Boost On song was just too awesome especially the opening.

To explain the new forms of the Angel, Stardust, and Cosmic, I had to go down a specific list of Mobile Suits for the choices until I found the right ones. For Angel, it will be based on the Extreme Gundam Type Leos II Vs. For Stardust, it will be based on the GN-0000GNHW/7SG 00 Gundam Seven Sword/G. For Cosmic, it will be based on the RX-0 Full Armor Unicorn Gundam Plan B.

If you'd like to be part of the revised version then please follow the instructions after the end of the trailer.

Now let's begin the trailer shall we?

>GKC Productions presents...

The screen opens to a cut in of the Angel and Stardust before shifting to reveal a clipshow of the countless different Gundams from alternate universes and dimensions. Cuts to a scene of the Angel and Stardust aiming their rifles to the sky then firing a powerful beam. Cuts to more clips of different Mobile Suits before shifting to an asteroid exploding.

A revision of an old taleâ€|

Cuts to a scene of both the Angel and Stardust kneeling on the surface of a space rock leveled with holes and battle scars. Both Gundams' eyes flash to life as they stand up then raise their swords which are beam-coated before slashing at the camera.

The camera cuts to a scene revealing the ZAFT-controlled G-Weapons flying through space before shifting to the Perfect Strike as it aims its Agni Beam Cannon then fires, forcing the G-Weapons to avoid the powerful beam.

Cuts to show the Cosmic leading a few Gundam-type MS through a nebula before it activates its NT-D and brings up a Twin-barreled Beam Magnum then fires a large beam.

The scene shifts to the Aile Strike throwing a punch that collides with the Duel's own as they slam their foreheads together in a glaring fashion. Cuts to the Strike Rouge firing its beam rifle then to the Providence unleashing its DRAGOONS. Shows the Justice equipped with the METEOR as it slashes at the screen with its large beam swords.

Cuts to an image of the Freedom Gundam spreading its wings before it shifts to reveal a Extreme Gundam Mk-II AXE with Strike Freedom's and Destiny's equipment as it did a pose.

Shows the Stardust firing its GN Sword II Blaster while the Angel fired its GN Eclipse beam cannons at the black Gundam before it uses its Multi-Purpose Shield Sabers to deflect the beams with a casual wave of its hand.

The AXE raised its hands as orbs of energy along with its Agni and DRAGOONS aim at the two Gundams then fires.

The Stardust prepares to raise its shield before the Angel intervenes by flying in front, projecting a shield that blocks the beams by using the GN Protect Bits. Portions of the GN Agios Funnels and two of the GN Blade Bits combine with the GN Valiant Rifle while the rest of the GN Agios Funnels aim at the AXE then fires with the Angel pulling the trigger on the combined GN Valiant.

The AXE walks out of the smoke as its wings spread in a 'Wings of the Skies' effect while its shields attach back onto its arms as its blue eyes glow a malevolent purple.

The Stardust uses its GN Sword II Short to extend the tip of the blade out at the black Gundam like a whip only for the AXE to block it with its right shield then activate the large beam swords in both shields as it swung at both the Angel and Stardust but they block it with their beam-covered blades.

The two Gundams boost towards the AXE, their sabers grinding against the larger beam swords then swung down to cut the black MS but its reaction was quick when it brought up its shields then sends them back, skidding on their feet.

The scene cuts to the Milky Way galaxy before shifting to reveal the G-Weapons, the Justice, the Freedom, the Providence, the Strike Rouge, and the Cosmic as they float in space.

Cuts back to the AXE as its faceplate opens to reveal a human-like mouth that opens to reveal its Extreme Cannon. A dark violet light is absorbed into the beam cannon while six 'Wings of Light' appear on the black Gundam's back before it fires at the Angel and Stardust, who raise their shields to brace against the attack, engulfing the camera in a blinding light.
